PRICE TO BE REDUCED.

The Daily Argus Only 10 Cents a Week After Dec. 1.

Commencing with the first day of December, the subscription rate for THE DAILY ARGUS will be only 10 cents a week, a reduction of 21 cents from the present price. At the same time the weekly system of collecting will be inaugurated in place of the monthly. Instead of a regular collector calling on subscribers once a month, collections will be made by the carrier boys on their respective routes every Saturday. All subscription accounts will be balanced up to Dec. 1, and a new account opened with each subscriber on the 10-cents-a-week plan.

Pay Up and Start Over.

It is therefore imperative that all arrearages be paid up in full as soon after this month as possible. To that end we request all our patrons to have whatever they owe up to Dec. 1 ready for the collector when he calls, and also to remember the carrier will call each Saturday. By following the request hereby made, subscribers will confer a great favor, as the change in collection periods will entail much work and more or less confusion until the weekly plan is fully established. When we are satisfied, it will prove not only more satisfactory to ourselves, but also to the patrons of THE ARGUS, than the system now in vogue. There has been a general and growing demand for more frequent collections, and THE ARGUS takes pleasure in responding to it, at the same time reducing its subscription price. At 10 cents a week THE ARGUS should find its way into every house in Rock Island, and we confidently look for an appreciable increase in circulation.

TAYLOR RIDGE.

TAYLOR RIDGE, Nov. 23.—S. P. Ball has opened up a splendid new meat market.

James Hogan and wife have moved into Rock Island.

A shooting match with real live pigeons, was held here, and there was more fun than a boy usually has at a circus.

O. L. Bruner, the stock buyer, is developing into a first-class politician. He expects to go to congress after W. F. Crawford has finished his first canvass.

Joseph Badham is fixing up a machine for the boring of wells. It is so perfect that all a man will have to do is to set it going and turn a crank. The machine will do the rest.

The Modern Woodmen of Edgington gave recently a splendid oyster supper, at which a most enjoyable time was spent. An invitation was extended to everybody, and everybody, it seems, attended.

C. E. Mudge, of Marion, Iowa, has been visiting this place with his daughter. He formerly lived here, and moved to Iowa, as the climate there was more favorable to his health. He is a brother of Mr. Mudge, the general merchant and grain and stock dealer.

The school here has been holding examinations Tuesday and Wednesday. The pupils are unusually well up in the different branches, from the youngest to the oldest. G. V. Pettit, the teacher, has worked unceasingly for the interests of the school, and has succeeded in an admirable manner.

And by the way, speaking of Crawford's ambition for congress is no joke. He is already setting the pins with that object in view, and has hosts of friends who are flocking to his standard. Crawford is wide-awake and knows a hawk from a hand saw. He has recently purchased a campaign cap and he says that cap is going to win.

Prevention is Better.

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.

D. 1893, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of submitting to a vote of said stockholders the question of an increase of the capital stock of said company from three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to the sum of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000). Variety the Spice of Life.

There is nothing benefits mankind so much as a change, even if it is only a change of linen. But what we mean to convey is that too much of any one thing becomes monotonous. The clerk, tied for hours at his desk, seeks relaxation on his flying wheel; the policeman, on his feet for hours (?), finds relaxation in an easy chair by his, or any other friend's fireside; a man badgered by a shrew of a wife seeks relaxation by tilting at a can over his head, and as the beer disappears, he gazes with consolation at his reflected countenance at the bottom of the growler. Even at the theatre how many plays are monotonous when all on the one theme; how a bit of sentiment is relieved by a hearty laugh, a merry dance or comic song. And if "variety is the spice of life," it reaches perfection in the great comedy. "She Couldn't Marry Three."

Getting Ready For the Snowbirds.

Three hundred men are now at work erecting snowbirds along the Cascade division of the Great Northern railroad line on both sides of the summit, and the forces will be increased as soon as possible so as to have them all completed before the 1st of November. The longest shed on the line will be about a half mile west of Wellington.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.
